INVITATION

Workshop Flat Panel Displays

Basics and Applications

September 27th, 2019
University Pforzheim

DISPLAY LABOR
HOCHSCHULE PFORZHEIM

The workshop is aimed for beginners, and decision makers in the areas of engineering, R&D, product development, purchasing, production, sales and marketing, who want to better understand the world and fundamentals of displays.

Goal

The 1-day event is a best practice workshop with focus on applications rather than physics and chemistry. The fundamentals of various display technologies and related areas are taught.

The workshop is dedicated to the basics of electronic displays. Deeper knowledge about displays is not required. It is ideal for newcomers to the display industry and for management that wants to get an overview of the field of electronic displays.

The Topics of the Workshop are:

- What is a display?
- Fundamentals of LCD, OLED, E-Paper
- Fundamentals of Optical Measurements ("data sheets explained")
- Fundamentals of Display Electronics and Interface
- Introduction of Touch Screens

The Workshop will be led by

Prof. Dr. Karlheinz Blankenbach
Pforzheim University
Information Technology
Tiefenbronner Straße 65
75175 Pforzheim
